

Oshawa Historical Society Membership Form

You are invited to join the Oshawa Historical Society and celebrate our past.....

Membership Benefits

- Free admission to the museum & early notice of our special events.
- Discounts at the country store.
- Monthly meetings addressing a variety of heritage topics
- Quarterly newsletter.
- The chance to meet other people interested in the history of Oshawa.

The Oshawa Historical Society was founded in 1957 and is an affiliate of the Ontario Historical Society. The purpose of the society is to bring together those individuals interested in the diverse historical aspects of Oshawa and to research, record, retain, preserve and present historical information pertaining to the Oshawa area.

The Oshawa Historical Society administers the Oshawa Community Museum and Archives. The museum depicts local history through the interpretation of three restored buildings. All three homes stand on their original foundation and provide a greater understanding of the lifestyles of Oshawa's early inhabitants.
